

W
W
T 2 7
A True
RELATION
Of a GREAT and HAPPY
VICTORY.

Which it hath pleased God to give to his Excellency the Earle of ESSEX, and his Forces, over the Kings Army, as it was brought to both Houses of Parliament, by the Lord Wharton, and Mr. Stroud, a Member of the House of Commons, on Wednesday in the Afternoone, Octob. 26. 1642.

In which Battell his MAJESTY lost six Colours, and his Standard, 5 Wagons, laden with ammunition, and Plate, a Coach, 8 Pieces of Ordnance, and 3000 men, all which the Parliaments Forces obtained with the losse of 300 on their side.

Also they have taken the Lord Linsie, Generall of the Field, Sir Thomas Lunford, Sir Edward Stradling, and Colonell Favasse, who are now Prisoners in Warwick Castle.

Whereunto is added a Letter from a worthy Divine, to the Right Honourable the Lord Maior, of the City of London, dated on Monday last from Warwick Castle.

Octob. 27. London Printed for Iohn Wright. 1642.

RELATION
OF
GREAT and HAPPY
VICTORY.

Which it hath pleased God to give to his Excellency the Duke of Marlborough his Forces, over the King's Army to both Houses of Parliament, by the bold conduct and able management of the Honourable John Churchill, Marquis of Blenheim, on the 13th of June 1704.
In which Battle his Majesty's Victory was complete, and his standard & Colours taken, and the Army of the French driven out of the Field, and the Prisoners of War, and the Spoils of War brought in.

And they have taken the Fort of Cassel in the County of Flanders, and the Town of Cassel, which are now in the possession of the English Army.
Whereunto is added a List of the Names of the Right Honourable Lord High Treasurer, and other Officers of the Army, who were present at the said Battle, on Monday the 13th of June 1704.

Printed by J. Streater, at the Sign of the Gun, in St. Dunstons Church-yard, near the North Gate of London.

NEVVES

From the

ARMIE.

As it was brought by the Lord Wharton, and Master Strode, to both Houses of Parliament.

Pon Wednesday in the afternoone, October 26. 1642. the Lord Whar- ton accompanied with Mr. Strode, a Member of the House of Commons, came to both Houses of Parliament with a Message from his Excellencie the Earle of Essex; Being a Relation of the Battaille fought betweene his Majesties Forces, and them on Sunday the 24. of October to this effect.

God hath given us the Victory, the peticulars are these.

Lord Linsy Generall of the Field for his Majesty, is hurt and taken.

A 2

Also

Also Sir Thomas Lunford, Sir Edward Stradling and Colonel Ker, are Prisoners now in the Castle.

And it is said that the Lord Wylloughby, the Lord of Linsay son is taken.

Our losse is about 300. whereof of note Sir James Ramsay, and Colonel Essex, and Captaine Dance Arme is broken.

All our Noble Lords are in good health.

And more, have taken 6. Cullors, and his Majesties Standard. We have also taken five Waggones laden with Ammunition and Plate, by Captaine Bridges, and a Coach and eight Peeeces of Ordnance, the King and Prince being all the while at Sir Edward Copes house at Harwell, and now intends to march towards Northampton with 300. men.

The Kings losse 3000.

The rest of his Army is routed, and the Earle of Essex remains Master of the Field.

A Letter from his Excellencie
the Earle of Essex, Being a Relation of the Fight betwene his Majesties Forces, and them on Sunday the 24. of October to this day.

Lord Essex General of the Field for his Majesty is here and taken.

Also

A

A Letter sent from a Worthy Divine, to the Right Honourable the Lord Ma. of the City of L O N D O N.

Being a true Relation of the Battaille fought betweene his Majesties Forces, and his Excellency the Earle of B S S E X.

From Warricke Castle the 24. of October, 1641, and a clocke in the morning.

S I B,

Yesterday, being the Lords day, his Excellency intending to march from Kinton, a little Village in Warricks shire, towards Banbury to relieve it, unexpectedly an Alarme came about eight a clocke in the morning, that the Enemy was advancing within two or three miles, and that his Majesty would there give them Battell, which accordingly proved so, and it pleased God to make my selfe the first Instrument of giving a certaine discovery of it, by the helpe of a perspective Glasse from the top of an hill, when the two Armies were drawne into Battallia, about two a clocke in the afternoone, a very sore and fierce Bat-taille began, which continued about foure houres in mine owne sight and hearing, much blood was shed, a gallant spirit expressed our Infantry, even to such a degree Valiantness, as may crowne every common Souldier with the honour of a Commander. But the left wing of our Horse being charged by the Kings right wing; was suddenly put to flight, so that the right wing in which your Son was placed, did the best service for the Chivalry; where your Son is (or any of the rest of my Lords Guard) I know not, I hope they are safe because upon diligent inquiry, I yet heare no hurt of them. However, if you have consecrated a Son to so Noble a Service, I doubt not but you will endeavour to heare it cheerefully, if you should heare that he is either slaine or wounded. We have lost none of our Commanders (as we can yet understand) except Colonell Charles Essex, and Sir James Ramsey, who is either kill'd or taken, we have Prisoners from the Kings side, the Lord of Linsay General of the Field, with his Son, Colonell Nevis, who was Commander of the Kings Guard and Standard, which likewise we have taken. As also Colonell Lunsford, who are now both at Warwicke Castle, we did beate the Enemy out of the Field, and gained foure Peeces of Ordinance.

This morning it is expected that there are foure fresh Regiments on our side, as namely Colonel Hamdens, Colonell Grantham, Colonell Barkham, and the Lord *Rochford*s Regiments should joyne with the rest.
The residue of our Army to fall on the remainder of the Kings Forces, hoping for as glorious successe as before, Colonell Nevis assures us that the King himselfe for some time was in the Army, we heare no cer-tainy yet concerning Prince Rupert, some say he is slaine. A few of our Waggones were burned and plundered dered by the Enemy, who we led about into our Borne, but our Musqueteeres played bravely upon them in the meane time, and recovered our Waggon againe and six peeces of Ordinance which we had lost, our Enemy had the wind more with them, but we had more of the hill, we had but twelve Regiments in the field, against fifty Troops of Horse (I think, at the most, and some two Regiments of Dragoners, His Excellency maintained the fight most gallantly. And our Noble Lords, as the Lord Marston, Willoughby, Parham, Brook, Roberts &c. did as bravely. All this hath God enabled our Army to performe, though from Wednesday ti this moment of writing, the common Soldiers have not come into a bed, but have lodged in the open fie in the wet and cold nights, & most of them scarce ea drank any thing for 24 houres together, nay, I t for 48. except fresh water where they could get it, Ash was marvellously preserved from the cruelty Cavaliers which set upon him, one of them cut off hat and raised his haire with his sword, but never tou ed his skin God hath brought most of our Ministe this night to Warwick, Mr. Ash amongst the rest, & Mr. Marshall, whose danger was no lesse: For my o part, after I had discharged my duty as farre as I enabled, by passing from Regiment to Regiment Troope to Troope to encourage them at the end of the fight, not knowing what the issue of the might be, in the darksom Evening, while it was yet light, I rid to Warwick among hundreds of drawne Swords, and yet was saved from the least touch o blood-thirsty hand. The Cavaliers some of them pur suing our Horsemen, which as I said before, forsook their their progress in the left wing of the Army, and then to Warwick, Thence which I needs bold to enforme your Honour, that you may be able to speak confidently and stop the mouth of false rumors, you shall doe me a favour if you please to let my noble friend Sergeant Major Skippin see this letter, because it is neeces proper for his element, I do the Mr. C. (next to my heart) be referred to your good Love I may say that I love him and his. If you shall thinke it convenient to be in relation; perhaps it may be usefull, if done wroo-y, you need not doubt of the truth of any part of

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you. I have been thinking of you a great deal lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.

1. The first of these is the fact that the 2. second of these is the fact that the 3. third of these is the fact that the 4. fourth of these is the fact that the 5. fifth of these is the fact that the 6. sixth of these is the fact that the 7. seventh of these is the fact that the 8. eighth of these is the fact that the 9. ninth of these is the fact that the 10. tenth of these is the fact that the FINIS.

Transcribed from the original manuscript of the "Journal of the Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, held at New York, in the year 1801."

[illegible]